

Lyman Clark, Director representing the Village of Pouce Coupe

Lyman Clark is currently the Mayor for the Village of Pouce Coupe. He was elected as Mayor in 2008. Lyman was born in Indianapolis, Indiana. He started his journey to Canada in 1987 and, after a brief stop in Seattle, finally arrived in 1990. He fell in love with the Peace country in 1989 while visiting friends. He received a Canadian work permit in 1990, followed by landed status and then Canadian Citizenship. Lyman has been a member of the Dawson Creek Sportsman's Club for many years and is a Past President. He has also been associated with the Dawson Creek and District Hospital Foundation and the BC Wildlife Federation. He is currently the Vice President of the Pouce Coupe Community Foundation. Lyman is a history lover, concentrating mostly on railways and steam locomotives. He enjoys Shakespeare plays and movies, going to historical sites, and building working reproductions of firearms over 200 years old.
