

Alec Brownlee, Alternate Director representing the District of Chetwynd

Alec Brownlee was elected as a Councillor for the District of Chetwynd in 2008. He was born in Red Deer, Alberta and moved to British Columbia as a teenager.

Alec graduated from GP Vanier Senior Secondary School in Courtenay, BC. He then worked throughout the Province from Vancouver Island to the Yukon Border as a Heavy Duty Mechanic. His first move to the Peace River area was to Dawson Creek in 1990 with Finning. After numerous moves he finally settled in Chetwynd in 1997 where he was employed by West Fraser.

He was a Board Director and an active volunteer for the Pine Valley Exhibition Park for a number of years. He is currently employed by Caribou Road Services as Maintenance Superintendent. Alec and his wife, Ardith, have four grown children, two live in Chetwynd, one in Fort St. John and one on Vancouver Island.

Contact Information:

District of Chetwynd: (250) 401-4101
Email: abrownlee@caribouroads.com

Peace River Regional Board Appointments:

- Alternate Director