

Cheryl Shuman, Alternate Director representing the City of Dawson Creek

Cheryl Shuman, Councillor of the City of Dawson Creek, was born in the Yukon. Her family moved to BC when she was 10 years old, after spending time in the Lower Mainland, Vancouver Island, the Okanagan and the Northwest before making Dawson Creek her home 26 years ago. Cheryl has deep roots in the region, her great-grandfather settled in the Pouce Coupe Valley in 1898.

Cheryl and her husband of 20 years enjoy an active lifestyle in Dawson Creek with their three children.

Cheryl is very passionate about the environment and sustainability and is a member of the BC Mayors Climate Leadership Council, board member of the Recycling Council of BC and board member of the Community Energy Association. As a third-term Councillor for the City of Dawson Creek, some of Cheryl's committee and liaison appointments have been Peace River Regional District Alternate Director, Site C Regional and Local Government Liaison Committee Alternate, two years as the Peace Regions North Central Local Government Association Regional Representative and is currently serving a second term as Director at Large at the BC Union of Municipalities.

She also participates in many organizations in Dawson Creek, including Kidsport, Success by Six, Dawson Creek Harm Reduction Committee, Dawson Creek Watershed Society and the Kiwanis Performing Arts Society. In her spare time Cheryl enjoys playing baseball, soccer, skiing and participating in Dawson Creek's active arts community.
