Changes to 2018 Board Meeting Schedule

The following changes have been made to the Regional Board 2018 Meeting Schedule:

The April 5th and 19th meetings have been rescheduled for April 12th and 26th

The May 3rd meeting location has been moved from the Regional District Office Boardroom in Dawson Creek to Sauleteu First Nations.

Zoning- Development Variance Permit (DVP)

The Board adopted the Maurice and Dixie Huserreau DVP to reduce the required setbacks on the subject property to allow for a variance to construct a residential home, garage, and associated developments.

A message from CRS and YRB

CRS and YRB are asking folks to check their culverts as the snow begins to melt in the region.

The public is responsible to maintain their own access culvert(s), even though those culverts may have been originally installed by MoTI.

YRB: 250-262-2600

CRS: 250-786-5440 Toll free: 1800-667-2322

Chetwynd Tradeshow April 6, 7 & 8

Peace River Regional District will be at the Chetwynd Tradeshow. This provides an opportunity for Board members to speak with residents to talk about and receive feedback regarding current initiatives and decisions of the Regional Board. Elected officials will attend as their schedules permit.

Daisy Jingle Winner

The Daisy Jingle contest winner will be announced at the April 12 Board meeting!

The PRRD is putting this invasive plant on notice! These white petalled, yellow-centered daisy flowers are the PRRD’s most wanted invasive plants in 2018!
