Fire service expansions - surveys close soon!

The PRRD has been busy conducting public engagement to determine if residents support the expansion of the fire protection areas for the Dawson Creek and Charlie Lake Fire Departments.

If you are a resident within the proposed expansion areas - there is still time to have your say! Scan the QR codes below to complete the surveys before July 18.

Feedback needed on possible park in Lone Prairie

At the direction of the Regional Board, the Peace River Regional District is investigating the possibility of developing a community park in Lone Prairie. To start the process, the PRRD needs to determine the level of interest from area residents.

Do you want to see a park in this community and if so, what kinds of features and activities would you like? Residents are encouraged to scan the QR code below to help answer these questions and more.

Survey closes August 2, 2021

Free property assessments continue to be offered to rural residents

With the soaring temperatures coming in across the Peace region, have you considered if your home is prepared for a wildfire?

Residents encouraged to utilize the service as we enter peak wildfire season.

The PRRD has partnered with local wildfire experts from Mammoth Forestry to offer 100% confidential and free property assessments. Homeowners will receive practical advice and simple steps to drastically reduce fire risk to their property during the assessment, helping to ensure that their home is left standing in the event of a wildfire.

Advance and general voting days announced for proposed service functions

It's time to get out and vote! Your Regional District is asking residents to place their votes for the Health Related Services Grant-in-Aid Service and Seniors Aging in Place Support Services.

The Health Related Services Grant in Aid function would provide grants to key not-for-profit societies in an effort to enhance health related services in the region. Do you support this service? All residents in the PRRD and municipalities are eligible to vote during the advance and general voting events.

The Seniors Aging in Place Support Services function would help seniors stay in their homes for as long as possible by providing home-based services for residents in Electoral Area D and parts of Area E. Are you a resident in these areas? You are eligible to vote during the advance and general voting events.

Advance Voting

July 7, July 14, 2021 | 8am-8pm local time | Ovintiv (aka Encana) Events Centre, Dawson Creek

General Voting

July 17, 2021 | 8am-8pm local time | Multiple locations

To check if you are eligible to vote for one or both services, and to view the general voting locations, visit prrd.bc.ca or call 250-784-3200.
